Series: Bless this Home
Message: Heart of a Mother

We have looked at three characteristics of God's nature that are reflected in mothers. Let's take some time now to consider the implications of these.

First, if you have never accepted Christ as your Savior and leader, this message has explained some of the awesome benefits of being God's child and follower. God offers us what we were created for to have a full and meaningful life. If you want to know more, please let me know by email at: rusty.coram@newhope.org.

Now let's reflect on what God offers us as His children.

How do you feel knowing that God is always aware and thinking about you?

Like a devoted mother, even when we are unfaithful, God doesn't desert us. He will not subsidize our sinful ways, but He is ready to accept us as soon as we repent. Is there anything you need to admit to God and turn away from?

Like a mother eagle, God will provide for and protect us. This doesn't mean we won't face hardship – just that we will never be alone. Is there anything you are facing right now that you need to be reminded that God is with you this way?

In the last passage, we see Jesus' concern for those who have rejected Him. He is ready to accept us the moment we humbly turn toward Him. Take some time now and think about your own life and those around you. Pray that God would allow you and them to recognize how deep and sincere His love for you is. Ask Him to show you anything that is getting in the way of you fully experiencing the joy and security of knowing His love. Do the same for others that you care about.
