The House

Have you ever wondered what role the church should play in your life? Or if God even cares whether or not you show up? Maybe you go to church out of a sense of obligation. Maybe your entire life revolves around the church. Or maybe you don't go to church at all. No matter how you view the church or what role it plays in your life, there is a power and a meaning that can only be realized when you treat God's house the way He intended.

TOP FIVE THINGS TO KNOW...

There is a new small group forming during the day on Thursdays for women with children at home! If that is something you're interested in, please let us know at bit.ly/thursdaymoms. This might be the perfect time for you to connect with other women who are in the same stage of life as you. Children are welcome and childcare options will be decided as a group. One thing is for sure - life is so much easier when we walk through it together.

Save the date • Saturday, April 29th • 8:30 am-5 pm

Blended & Blessed is a live simulcast event designed for stepfamily couples, single parents, dating couples with kids, and those who care about blended families. Join us at New Hope as we unpack five keys that are crucial to healthy stepfamily marriages. Sign up details are coming very soon!

Join our Men's Ministry for a pancake breakfast on Saturday, March 11th, from 7 to 9 am in the New Hope atrium. We're asking men from other local churches to join us, so we hope to have a full house. We'll hear from the Authentic Manhood Journey Group, who will share their key takeaways. Bring a friend and come hungry! The cost is $5 and guests eat free. Sign up online at bit.ly/marchmensbfast.

CELEBRATE RECOVERY

Celebrate Recovery is for people who are dealing with all sorts of life-dominating hurts, habits and hang-ups. If that's you, or someone you know, please join us Friday evenings at 7 pm. For more information email celebraterecovery@newhope.org. Childcare is provided for kids from 12 months to 12 years old. Please stop by Guest Services and pick up our brochure, or better yet, you can find us online at cr.newhope.org.

lifebound

Lifebound is a group for young adults who are trying to navigate life, faith and how to move forward successfully into adulthood. It can be a stressful time, with a lot of big decisions, and we'd love to be there to help. If you're in your late teens through 20's, Lifebound will provide you with the necessary tools to walk through life with Christ in a challenging world, bridging the gap between High School and 'real life.' We meet on Wednesdays from 7-8:30 pm, up in the game room. For information, contact Tommy at lifebound@newhope.org.

TAKEOVER

Wondering where our students are? Well, there's a service just for you! If you're in 7th-12th grade, join us on Sunday nights at 6 pm (doors open at 5:30). We have games, worship, teaching, small groups, service projects and more! Join us this week as we continue our series called, Meh, Why Bother? Be here when the doors open at 5:30 and bring your friends!

At New Hope, we want to be a church that responds to needs that occur within our own church family and community, but also around the world. One of our core values is Saved People Serve People. God has blessed us with so much - we want to give back in whatever way we can, serving those who have so little. Because of the continued needs in Haiti, and now the growing needs of refugees throughout our world, we have decided to add another mobilepack with Feed My Starving Children to our schedule. During the weekend of April 21-23, we will pack 544,320 meals (two full containers) to be used to help with the food shortage crisis. Watch for more details and the opening of registration soon, but mark your calendars now and plan to join us as we once again help turn hunger into hope. Questions? Contact Kim Feld at kim.feld@newhope.org.

VOLUNTEER OF THE WEEK

Our volunteers are the very best! There's no way we could keep New Hope running without the help of these special people. This week, we'd like to thank Andrea Ausberry-McNeil, who serves on our Guest Services Team. We work hard to make everyone feel welcome at New Hope - especially our first time guests. But, we can't stop there. This is a busy place with a lot going on. Our Guest Services Team is trained to answer questions and help people find their way around. Thanks for being awesome, Andrea. We appreciate you!

Parent/Child Dedication

Saturday, March 25th at 10:00 am

This is for parents with kids of any age, who desire to make a commitment to model Jesus at home for their children. We look forward to partnering with your family! If you would like to participate, please sign up and pick up a booklet at the table by the fireplace. You can also find a digital copy at bit.ly/pcdinfo. Next, complete the packet and attend one of the following orientation meetings in the auditorium (please pick up your child from Sprouts or Kids' Time first):

- March 4 Immediately following the 5:30 pm service
- March 5 Immediately following the 9:00 am service
- March 11/12 Immediately following all three services

We're excited to help make this a very special day for your family!
